L.I.P. Certificates of Analysis/Irradiation Certificates

Dear Customer,

We would like to inform you that we have recently switched to a different hosting provider for our website.

We are aware that this has affected the retrieval system for our Certificates of Analysis and Irradiation Certificates.

Unfortunately, shipping manifests that were issued PRIOR to May 26 2017 will no longer work.

Hyperlinks on shipping manifests issued after this will work as normal.

However, if you have shipping manifests that have been affected please enter the required batch number manually into the search bar on our new certificate retrieval page located at:

<http://www.lipdiagnostic.com/certs.php>

Should you require further information please do not hesitate to contact us.
